SUBJECT.

Enhancement of Pension to D.Venkatachar, late Naramat clerk, Deputy Commissioner's Office, Mysore.

1. Nsr Petn. dy 16.7.1903. From D. Venkatachar late Naramat clerk D.C's Office, Mysore. E P&A 1077/1903

Prays that he may be granted a pension of Rs 12-8-0 per mensem with effect from 18th December 1899 as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner.

2. Nsr P&A 438-9 dy 7.9.1903. to the Comptroller and the D-C Mysore &c.

Sanctions under Article 275A of the M.S.Regulations, a pension of Rs 12-7-0 per mensem, and in supersession of Govt Pro: No 14107-8 P & A 1260 D/ 21st March 1903, sanctioning a pension of Rs 9-15-2 to D.Venkatachar.

A pension of Rs 9-15-2 per mensem was sanctd to the petitioner in Govermt Proc. No. 1407-8 / P&A 1260 dd 21/3/03 with effect from the 12th July 1902 as recommended by the Comptroller. In the present petition, D Venkata-char prays that an enhanced pension of Rs 12-8-0 per mensem may be sanctd to him and that from Decr 1899, as was recommended by the Dy Accountt in his docket No. 644 dd 18th Septr 1902 to the Comptroller.

With reference to the first prayer in

Vide 1st col-Block memo-dt

It is submitted as follows:—

The petitioner has rendered service as pay of Rs 107 for a period of 1-8-0 from 1-12-73 to 31-7-1875. The Comptroller treated this period as "Superior Service" under art: 257 of the 1st edn of the Ind. S. Regulations and excluded it from calculation towards pension under art: 324 (a) (i). Excluding this Superior period, the total qualifying service rendered by the petitioner amounted to 24-4-17, for which he was entitled under art:— 320 (b), to a pension of Rs 9-15-2 which was accordingly reported on by the Comptroller and sanctioned by Govt.

The petitioner was under suspension from 18th Dec 1899 ~~and~~ The order retiring him was passed on 12th July 1902; ~~and~~ but the order sanctioning pension to him was ~~passed~~ issued on the 21st March 1903. Thus though he was retired when the 1st edn of the Ind. S. Regns was was in force, his pension was only sanctioned in March 1903 when the 2nd edition had come into force. Under this edn, Service on pay of Rs 107 is ~~to~~ treated as Sup: On the analogy of the 2nd Councillor's order passed in the marginally noted case, if the benefit of the 2nd edn be given to the petitioner, the total qualifying Service would amount to 26-0-16, which would entitle him to a pension of Rs 12-7-0 per mensem. This amount is less than the amount now claimed by the petitioner, by one anna.

Khaja Kuija late Police Jaffedar of the Malavalli Taluk (Flag A in the linked file).

Moreover, even if the benefit of this 2nd edn be not given to the petitioner still he would be eligible to the pension of Rs 12-7-0 per mensem ~~for~~ as explained below:—

Excluding the ~~Sow~~ — Superior Service on pay of Rs 107.

, the total qualifying service reckoned by the Petitioner amounts to 24-4-17, which fall short of 25 years required for half pay pension by 0-7-13 (Rs 12-7-0) by 0-7-13. This deficiency may be condoned under art: 275 A of the Service Regulations. The petitioner would then be ~~able to~~ eligible to a pension of Rs 12-7-0 p.m.

The 2nd prayer that his pension may have effect from the 18th Dec 1895 is not for orders.

I think Rs 12-7-0 may be duly sanctioned.

On the 2nd point, I am not sure that the order has been correctly issued. The Office note made the pension payable from 12 July 1902, but the 2nd Councillor said from the date on which the man ceased to be in service and the Dewan agreed. Please put up the P.W. Secy's order refe

The order is incorrect - Let it be rectified - U.
